NOTES FROM THE OFFICE
Grandparent/Special Person Visit
Thank you to all of the grandparents and special guests who joined us for our Grandparents Day celebration. It was amazing to see the gym full of people who love and guide our students. The staff and students did a wonderful job singing and writing poems for the special guests. We truly look forward to this day every year. Thank you also to Mr. Skeels, Mrs. Thelen, Ron Kramer, Ms. Mitchell and the Life Skills students, the PTO and Mr. Johnston for all of their extra work in making this day special.

Crazy Socks for Homeless Angels
Student Council is hosting a Crazy Sock Day on Tuesday, October 29. For a .50c donation, our students and staff can show off their fun and crazy socks! Student Council will then take the money raised to purchase socks for the Homeless Angels after the event. Any donations are appreciated!

Halloween
Halloween is coming quickly! Our Halloween events will begin with a school wide costume parade at 1:30. We are asking parents and guests to come to the playground where the students will exit the building and parade around for everyone to see them and take pictures. After the parade, all of our classrooms will have their classroom parties. Your classroom teachers may be sending home additional information about classroom parties.

NEWS FROM THE PTO
Safety Assembly
The PTO is hosting a safety assembly for our students on Wednesday, October 23. The Pewamo Fire Department and other local first responders are coming in to teach our students about safety and various techniques they can use to stay safe.
